REPORT FILED CONGRESSMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) - Rep. annual auditors' report filed with Wayne Hays (D-Ohio) suggested today that there ought to be a rule The township spent $29,491.94 against congressmen toting guns

"Personally, I'm in favor of checking guns at the front door,'

The Ohio congressman spoke to a reporter after another House whether he lugged a pistol to and from House sessions.

"I don't think that's anybody's business but mine," Harmon said. 'It's a personal matter.'

But in his office he showed a pistol to an Indianapolis News reporter who quoted him as saying I live in a pretty rough section of Washington.

Harmon's reply to questions about the gun was similar to a statement he made earlier this week when it was disclosed that he is getting $100 a month from the government as rent for the front porch of his home in Muncie. Ind. The porch is used as his congressional district office He South, Puerto Rico said then it was "nobody's business but my own."

Three County Cagers Unanimous Choice For All-Division Honors

Three Adams County Division players in the Adams-Franklin County Basketball League were unanimous choices for the 1959 All-Division first team selected by the coaches who were limited to all-opponent choices.

Jimmy Kuhn, Biglerville, who topped the league in scoring with 391 points; Charley Chronister, Bermudian Springs, runnerup in point production with 323, and Dave Sprankle, Fairfield, who netted 242 tallies, polled 25 points each.

Bermudian, runnerup to Biglerville, division titlist, took the lion's share of honors by placing three members on the first team. In addition to Chronister, Bob Weigle, the only junior in an otherwise all-senior outfit, and George Williams were chosen.

Biglerville's entire starting outfit drew votes. Harry Hartzell gained second team honors while Larry Eckenrode, Bob Nyce and Joe Cicierski were given honorable mentions.

The coaches cast ballots for a total of 22 division players. None Unanimous

There was no player in the Franklin County Division gaining unanimous selection.

Elam Oberholzer of the secondplace Greencastle squad drew the highest number of votes - 23. Jack Kennedy, ace of Scotland's division champs, was runnerup

The entire Franklin first team is made up of seniors, three of whom are Scotland players. The second team includes six players due to ties in the balloting. Franklin County coaches voted for a total of 23 players.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Chapter Verses Sunday Mark 30-50 Monday Psalms Tuesday Psalms 119 9-16 Wednesday Isaiah 14-16 Thursday 38-40 Acts Friday Deuteronomy 30 15-20 Saturday III John

Of course I don't scare you. I'm only a little boy making believe I'm a big bad man.

Some day, though, I will be big. Some day this game might be real, 'cause even the biggest bad man was once a little boy. And who knows what made him go wrong? That's why early training is so important.

In church and Bible school we learn about God's kindness and love, and how we can trust Him for the things we need. We learn to want to help others, instead of hurting them.

Encourage the children you know to learn all the good they can. Make church and Bible school your family custom-please.

Sunday School Lesson

JESUS FACES THE CROSS Mark 14:32-42

Key Verse: Not what I will but what thou wilt. Mark 14:36. Jesus did not convince the religious leaders with His answers to their questions and only succeeded in strengthening the opposition. Any arrest must be private, as public arrest would create a disturbance. The strange actions of Judas were ready made and this disgruntled and disloyal disciple played right into the hands of the Jewish leaders. Judas agreed to betray his Lord. On the evening of the paschal supper Jerusalem was thronged with pilgrims all intent upon observing this sacred Passover feast. Peter and John had arranged for the disciples' supper in the Upper Room and there they assembled. The only discordant notes were Jesus' prediction of betrayal and denial. The Lord's Supper was instituted and Jesus gave His disciples some last-minute instructions.

Walks Alone, Prays The Lord's spiritual struggle was intensified as the group withdrew to Gethsemane, a small elevation beyond the city walls. There the Man of Sorrows led His followers, saying, "Sit here while I pray." In this olive grove called Gethsemane (an Aramaic word meaning "oil press") He walked alone and prayed. Our Saviour was probably the loneliest man in history even though He was followed by crowds and accompanied daily by disciples. But there was no human companionship to comfort Him in His nour of trial.

His cup of affliction was running over as He fell on the ground, praying that the hour might pass from Him. "And he said, 'Abba Father, all things are possible to thee; remove this cup from me; yet not what I will, but what thou

"Jesus then came and found Peter, James, and John sleeping, and he said to Peter, 'Simon, are you asleep? Could you not watch one hour? Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." It was difficult to find the disciples sleeping when He Himself was under such terrible emotional strain. This showed that the disciples did not have the strength to avoid temptation and could not meet emergencies. He was concerned that the disciples should be on "the watch" and "constant in prayer. "Found Them Sleeping" Again He found them sleeping out His hour had come, and He said to them, "It is enough; the hour has come; the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us be going;

see, my betrayer is at hand. He was going out to meet Judas, His betrayer, and the Roman guards. Just as Jesus had set His face toward Jerusalem end His opponents, just so He approached His arrest. He had found strength in prayer to face trials and final crucifixion. Alone He would be delivered up and His fearful companions would stumble off into the dark fearing

So Gethsemane has always meant crisis and spiritual struggle There we must face God and make our choice. To learn "to do the will of God" is not easy for it is more inviting to adjust our lives to a selfish pattern. However, if we do accept God's will for us, we will experience a deep joy and love. He will give us the power and strength to meet temptations.

Kiwanis Told Of 4-H In Taneytown

Five 4-H Club members served as a panel to discuss 4-H Club activities for the Taneytown Kiwanis Club at its meeting Wednesday. The panelists were Merle Weant, Harney Club; John Rinehart, Piney Creek Club; Clarence Thomas, Taneytown Agricultural Club; Mary Ellen Stonesifer, Taneytown Girls Club, and Vesta Null, former members of the Taneytown Agricultural Club.

They explained that young people, ages 10 through 21, may become 4-H club members, that the clubs are volunteer organizations and that they offer many projects through which members can get training for their future role in life. Community organizations, such as Kiwanis, can help 4-H by encouraging young people to join, they said.

Tom Albaugh, vice president, conducted the meeting and introduced Key Clubbers Geary Myers and Howard Green. Norman Graham, chairman of the agricultural conservation committee, introduced Hubert Hull, local leader of the Tanytown Agricultural 4-H Club who presented the panel. Mrs. Joyce Hawkins, associate home demonstration agent, was also introduced.

The Day Christ Died

The author's detailed, hour-by-hour account of the most dramatic day in history started with 6 p.m.-the beginning of the Hebrew day.

Jesus' teachings and denunication of unworthy leaders of the people, His miracles, the growing numbers of persons who hailed Him as the Messiah, had roused the resolute enmity of the native high priest Caiaphas and members of the Sanhedrin, the native supreme court. They feared Jesus would wreck their power and influence. He came into Jerusalem for the Passover, knowing of their determination to destroy

During the Passover feast with His chosen twelve Disciples at the house of Mark's father. Jesus made plain in farewell instructions to the Disciples that He was aware His betrayal to the rulers was near. He knew, too, that Judas had become alienated from Him. He was ready: quietly, He told Judas, "That which you must do, do quickly.'

Judas hastened to the Palace of Caiaphas, divulged whereabout, and agreed to point Him out to Roman police by giving Jesus a kiss. Caiaphas proceeded with the design he had already formed: that Jesus be tried and convicted by the Sanhedrin as a false
